Child/Minor Paperwork (Ages 8-18 years)

We look forward to meeting you and your child!

The first appointment is an opportunity for your child's therapist to get to know you and your child and for you and your child to get to know your child's therapist. This is also an opportunity for you and your child to get to know your rights and any practice policies we may have. Therefore, regardless of your child's age, we request that you attend the first session. Depending on the age of your child, your child's therapist may request that you meet with him/her without your child for the first session. Additionally, as caregivers and family members are such an integral part of a child's life, lasting change for children and adolescents typically requires family involvement. Therefore, you may be asked to attend family or parent sessions. You may also be asked to work with your child/adolescent in developing and implementing behavior change strategies outside of session.

Please read and fill out the paperwork before your first session so that we can answer any questions you or your child may have regarding this paperwork or provide any necessary clarifications.

Your child's therapist will not be able to meet with you until these documents are completed in full.

Thank you!

Policies and Procedures

This document contains important information about Thamani's professional services and business policies. Please read it carefully and jot down any questions you might have so that we can discuss them at our next meeting. When you sign this document, it will represent an agreement between us.

About Thamani

Thamani is a Christian not-for-profit (501(c)3) organization that exists to provide excellent mental health services, training, and research in Chicago and across the globe. We believe in making exceptional mental health care available to all, both within Chicago and internationally.

Location and Scheduling

Our offices are located on the second floor of 3036 W. Irving Park Ave. When you arrive for your appointment, please take a seat in the waiting room. There is no reception desk. Your therapist will come to the waiting room to meet you at the time of your appointment.

After your first appointment, you will be provided with a login and password for an online scheduling tool (timecenter.com). You may either make your next appointment with your therapist at the end of each session or schedule several appointments in advance using the online tool.

Contacting Us

Please feel free to contact Dr. Wildt, the practice owner, at (773) 270-2150 with any concerns or questions you may have. You may also email Dr. Wildt at hwildtpsyd@gmail.com. We are often not immediately available by telephone and will not answer the phone when with a patient. When we are unavailable, please leave a voicemail (which will be monitored frequently). We will make every effort to return your call within 24 hours, with the exception of weekends and holidays.

Email and Text Messaging

We only use email and text messaging with your permission and for administrative purposes, unless we have made another agreement. That means that email exchanges and text messages with Thamani should be limited to things like setting and changing appointments, billing matters and other related issues. Please do not email about clinical matters because email is not a secure way to contact us. If you need to discuss a clinical matter, please feel free to call your therapist or wait so we can discuss it during your therapy session.

Social Media

To protect your security and privacy, we do not communicate with, or contact, any clients through social media platforms like Twitter and Facebook. In addition, if we discover that we have accidentally established an online relationship with you, we will cancel that relationship.

Web Searches

We will not use web searches to gather information about you without your permission. We believe that this violates your privacy rights; however, we understand that you might choose to gather information about us in this way. In this day and age there is an incredible amount of information available about individuals on the internet, much of which may actually be known to that person and some of which may be inaccurate or unknown. If you encounter any information about your therapist or a staff member of Thamani through web searches, or in any other fashion for that matter, please discuss this with your therapist during your time together or contact the practice owner, Dr. Wildt, so that we can acknowledge it and its potential impact on your treatment.

Confidentiality

In general, the privacy of all communications between a patient and a psychologist is protected by law, and we can only release information about our work to others with your written permission. However, there are the following exceptions:

In most legal proceedings, you have the right to prevent us from providing any information about your treatment. In some proceedings involving child custody and those in which your emotional condition is an important issue, a judge may order our testimony if he/she determines that the issues demand it.

There are some situations in which we are legally obligated to take action to protect others from harm, even if we have to reveal some information about our treatment. For example, if we believe that a child, elderly person, or disabled person is being abused, we are required to file a report with the appropriate state agency.

If we believe that you are threatening serious bodily harm to another, we are required to take protective actions. These actions may include notifying the potential victim, contacting the police, or seeking hospitalization for you. If you threaten to harm yourself, we may be obligated to seek hospitalization for you or to contact family members or others who can help provide protection.

If a similar situation occurs, we will make every effort to fully discuss it with you before taking any action.

Children's Records and Information

Illinois law states that parents have the right to access the records of children under the age of 12 (with few exceptions). Although this is the parent's legal right, we recommend against this, as we find that children frequently view this as a betrayal of trust between the child and the therapist which potentially leads to a mistrust of adults and a reluctance to use and benefit from counseling. We recommend that parents/guardians talk to the child's therapist and attend family and parenting sessions at the therapist's recommendation and discretion.

Often, parents request access to information, often on the advice of attorneys, for use in mediation or court proceedings regarding custody or visitation. We believe that children whose parents are having marital stresses, are separated, or are divorced, have an even greater need to talk to an unbiased person about their concerns regarding their family. Children need to be able to talk without fear of their statements being reported to parents and/or used in court. Use of a child's statements, which have been made in confidence, in a court proceeding is a significant betrayal that is potentially damaging to the child and we recommend that you refrain from such requests in the best interest of your child.

Fees and Billing

Payment for the portion of the fee for which you are responsible is expected at the time of service. A copy of your credit card will be placed on file and billed in the event that your insurance company does not pay for services rendered or if there is any unpaid balance. We are happy to accept payments in cash, credit, or debit card.

We complete billing on a weekly basis and send out invoices on a monthly basis (typically the first week of the month). Please be mindful that it often takes a few weeks for insurances to process claims, and so there may be a delay between your initial session and your first bill.

Standard Fees

The following standard fees will apply:

- Initial diagnostic session: $225
- 45-minute therapy session: $150
- 60-minute session - $200
- Attendance at school meetings (e.g. IEP meetings) as a support person: $200/hour*
- Court appearances: $2,000 for a half day or $4,000 for a full day*
- Paperwork (e.g. letters written for ADA accommodations, FMLA paperwork, etc.): $30*
- Copies of records requested by client: $1/page*
- Additional phone contacts lasting 30 minutes or longer - $50*

Any service designated with an asterisk (*) is not covered by insurance and must be fully paid in advance.

Insurance

In Network: We are an in-network provider with Blue Cross Blue Shield PPO and Blue Choice Plans. Our billing department offers a preliminary verification of benefits before your scheduled appointment, so please have your insurance card available when you call to schedule an appointment. Please note that verification of benefits is not a guarantee of payment by the insurance company. We will provide you with whatever assistance we can in helping you receive the benefits to which you are entitled; however, you (not your insurance company) are responsible for full payment of fees. It is very important that you find out exactly what mental health services your insurance policy covers.

You should also be aware that most insurance companies require that we provide them with your clinical diagnosis. Sometimes we have to provide additional clinical information, such as treatment plans, progress notes or summaries, or copies of the entire record (in rare cases). This information will become part of the insurance company files. Though all insurance companies claim to keep such information confidential, we have no control over what they do with it once it is in their hands. In some cases, they may share the information with a national medical information databank. We will provide you with a copy of any records we submit, if you request it. You understand that, by using your insurance, you authorize us to release such information to your insurance company. We will try to keep that information limited to the minimum necessary.

Upon notice of insurance denial, Thamani will contact you with information regarding your account. If you have not responded after 30 days, your signature below acknowledges and authorizes Thamani to charge the full amount to your credit card.

Out of Network: If we are not in-network with your insurance plan, you can choose to self-pay and we are happy to provide you with the necessary paperwork to submit to your insurance company for out-of-network reimbursement.

Cancellation Policy

If you desire to cancel or reschedule an appointment, please provide your therapist with at least a 24-hour notice. If you do not give your therapist 24-hour notice, you are responsible for a $50 no-show fee, unless there are extenuating circumstances. Insurance companies do not pay for missed sessions. This fee will be charged to your credit card on the date of the missed session.

Supervision and Consultation

We believe that continuing to grow and develop as therapists requires ongoing consultation and supervision. Therefore, we may seek professional consultation from other Thamani clinicians. All discussions among staff and supervisors are held in confidence and are for the purpose of providing the best possible client care. When consulting, clinicians take significant measures to hide the identity of their clients.

Research

We believe that research helps us to know the most effective method(s) of treatment. To understand therapy better, we must collect information about clients before, during, and after therapy. Therefore, we may ask you to help us by filling out some questionnaires about different parts of your life-relationships, changes, concerns, attitudes, and other areas. We ask your permission to take what you write on these questionnaires and what we have in our records and use it in research or teaching that we may do in the future. If we ever use the information from your questionnaire, it will always be included with information from many others. Also, your identity will be made completely anonymous. Your name will never be mentioned, and all personal information will be disguised and changed. After the research, teaching, or publishing project is completed all the data used will be destroyed (in compliance with medical data and records guidelines).

Records

The laws and standards of this profession require that we keep treatment records. You are entitled to receive a copy of your records, or we can prepare a summary for you instead. Because these are professional records, they can be misinterpreted and/or upsetting to untrained readers. If you wish to see your records, we recommend that you review them in your therapist's presence so that he/she can discuss the contents. In some situations, we are willing to conduct a review meeting without charge. Patients will be charged an appropriate fee for any professional time spent in responding to information requests. Thamani uses electronic records, and any diagnoses made will be recorded electronically, and may be accessed by other Thamani providers.

Release of Record – You may consent in writing to release your records to others and you may revoke your consent in writing at any time. Your therapist may want to have a discussion with you about your choice to release your records upon your request.

Restriction or Amendment of Record – You may ask us to not use or disclose part of your record or to amend information that you feel is incorrect or incomplete. All requests must be made in writing, and in certain cases, we may deny your request. If we choose to deny your request, you have the right to file a statement that you disagree with us, which will be added to your record.

Ending Treatment

Therapy is unique in that its ultimate goal is for you to leave therapy. We believe that having an identified termination session is a very important part of therapy because they allow for a time to develop closure, review what you've learned, and work towards maintaining your progress. Therefore, we encourage you to address the following questions with your therapist during the first few sessions: "under what conditions will we end, and what will that ending look like?"

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

We may use or disclose your protected health information (PHI), for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes with your consent. To help clarify these terms, here are some definitions:

- “PHI” refers to information in your health record that could identify you.
- “Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations”
 - Treatment is when we provide, coordinate or manage your health care and other services related to your health care. An example of treatment would be when we consult with another health care provider, such as your family physician or another psychologist.
 - Payment is when we obtain reimbursement for your healthcare. Examples of payment are when we disclose your PHI to your health insurer to obtain reimbursement for your health care or to determine eligibility or coverage.
 - Health Care Operations are activities that relate to the performance and operation of my practice. Examples of health care operations are quality assessment and improvement activities, business-related matters such as audits and administrative services, and case management and care coordination.
- “Use” applies only to activities within our practice, such as sharing, employing, applying, utilizing, examining, and analyzing information that identifies you.
- “Disclosure” applies to activities outside of Thamani, such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.

II. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, and health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. An “authorization” is written permission above and beyond the general consent that permits only specific disclosures. In those instances when we are asked for information for purposes outside of treatment, payment and health care operations, we will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. We will also need to obtain an authorization before releasing your psychotherapy notes. “Psychotherapy notes” are notes your therapist has made about your conversation during a private, group, joint, or family counseling session, which have been kept separate from the rest of your medical record. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than PHI.

You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI or psychotherapy notes) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) we have relied on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, and the law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy.

III. Uses and Disclosures with Neither Consent nor Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

- Child Abuse: If we have reasonable cause to believe that a child has suffered abuse or neglect, we are required by law to report it to the proper law enforcement agency or the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services.
- Adult and Domestic Abuse: If we have reasonable cause to believe that abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult has occurred, we must immediately report the abuse to the Illinois Department of Family Services. If we have reason to suspect that sexual or physical assault has occurred, we must immediately report to the appropriate law enforcement agency and to the Illinois Department of Family Services.
- Health Oversight: If the Illinois Examining Board of Psychology subpoenas your therapist as part of its investigations, hearings or proceedings relating to the discipline, issuance or denial of licensure of state licensed psychologists, we must comply with its orders. This could include disclosing your relevant mental health information.
- Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for information about the professional services that we have provided to you and the records thereof, such information is privileged under state law, and we will not release information without the written authorization of you or your legal representative, or a subpoena of which you have been properly notified and you have failed to inform us that you are opposing the subpoena, or a court order. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.
- Serious Threat to Health or Safety: We may disclose your confidential mental health information to any person without authorization if we reasonably believe that disclosure will avoid or minimize imminent danger to your health or safety, or the health or safety of any other individual.
- Worker's Compensation: If you file a worker's compensation claim, with certain exceptions, we must make available, at any stage of the proceedings, all mental health information in my possession relevant to that particular injury in the opinion of the Illinois Worker's Compensation Commission, to your employer, your representative, and the Department of Labor and Industries upon request.

IV. Patient's Rights and Psychologist's Duties

Patient's Rights:

- Right to Request Restrictions – You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information about you. However, we are not required to agree to a restriction you request.
- Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means and at Alternative Locations – You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations. (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are receiving services at Thamani. Upon your request, we will send your bills to another address.)
- Right to Inspect and Copy – You have the right to inspect or obtain a copy (or both) of PHI and psychotherapy notes in our mental health and billing records used to make decisions about you for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your access to PHI under certain circumstances, but in some cases you may have this decision reviewed. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.
- Right to Amend – You have the right to request an amendment of PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your request. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the amendment process.
- Right to an Accounting – You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI for which you have neither provided consent nor authorization (as described in Section III of this Notice). On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the accounting process.
- Right to a Paper Copy – You have the right to obtain a paper copy of the notice from us upon request, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.

Psychologist's and Therapist's Duties:

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI.
- We reserve the right to change the privacy policies and practices described in this notice. Unless we notify you of such changes, however, we are required to abide by the terms currently in effect.
- If we revise our policies and procedures, we will notify you by mail with a revised version of this document.

V. Complaints

If you are concerned that we have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your records, please contact Dr. Wildt or your therapist at their business address.
